

Developing the VCS contribution to early help

Supporting the development of the multi-agency early help hub by:

- Identifying the diverse range of VCOs who can support children and families
- Facilitating links and brokering relationships
- Providing co-ordination in approaches to engagement
- Understanding and communicating the issues children and families face
- Identifying gaps in provision
- Supporting VCOs with capacity building and workforce development
- Identifying innovative approaches and opportunities for collaboration

